The annual conference of the European Expert Group for IT-Security takes place in Hamburg, Germany from April 30st 2006 to Mai 2nd 2006. The conference subject is

"SECURITY IN THE MOBILE AND NETWORKED WORLD".

The EICAR conference is well-known and widely recognised for its high technical and scientific standard. International scientists will present new results from research projects and from the work of the EICAR task forces on content security and RFID. This year, the conference for the first time opens up for business IT users meeting their needs with a tailor-made management track. With this approach EICAR will try contribute to an improved knowledge transfer between IT security scientists, vendors and users. Organisational and compliance topics are on the agenda, too.
